INDEPENDENCE FOR IRELAND

Proclamation To Issue This Afternoon from Mansion House

BRITISH DOMINIONS DEMAND
STATUS OF INDIVIDUAL STATES

(By Associated Press)

PARIS, Jan. 21.—New claims characterized as among the most momentous that will come before the peace conference will be reached by self-governing dominions of the British empire in connection with the formation of a league of nations. The dominions will ask to be admitted to the league with the status of individual states.

Civil nations whose sovereignty in internal affairs is recognized clearly by the world, although the right of Britain to control their foreign relations is admitted.

(By Associated Press)
PARIS, Jan. 21.—(Continued from page 1.)—The pressure of more urgent problems before delegates of the peace conference, various economic delegations are studying each for itself the blockade and kindred problems. It is probable they will inaugurate joint discussions during the coming week. The American viewpoint contemplates certain relaxation of the early "water tight" blockade which would permit entry of food stuffs, lubricants and other materials into enemy countries.

DELEGATES TO PEACE
CONGRESS APPOINTED
NOTICE TO ENGLAND

(By Associated Press)

DUBLIN, Jan. 21.—The Sinn Fein assembly stood while the declaration of independence was read announcing establishment of the Irish republic and demanding evacuation of Ireland by British garrisons.

(By Associated Press)
DUBLIN, Jan. 21.—Probably no country except Ireland could present an episode as remarkable as the assembling of the "Irish parliament" which will be called to order in Dublin's ancient Mansion House this afternoon to proclaim Ireland an independent Republic. One-half the Sinn Feiners elected to the British parliament will participate, the other half being in various English prisons charged with sedition or held on suspicion. Three items are expected to constitute the body of the program for the declaration of independence, message to the "free nations of the world" and appointment of delegates to the peace congress.

GERMANY IS PROMISING

(By Associated Press)
PARIS, Jan. 21.—Early returns from the German elections are interpreted here to signify a promising prospect for the establishment of a fairly stable administration with a majority of Socialists and German Democrats who are successors of the old radical party. Apparently these will go into the constituent assembly with a big lead over the Independent Socialists.

(By Associated Press)
COPENHAGEN, Jan. 21.—The new German national assembly will meet at Weimar, according to the Berlin Lokal Anzeiger. This was decided upon at a conference between the German government representatives and the Prussian ministry after they had agreed that the session had ought to be held in a non-Prussian town.

BOLSHEVIKI BEATEN BY ESTHONIAN

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, Jan. 21.—A notable success has been won against the Bolsheviks by Estonian troops operating northward of Lake Peipus, says an Estonian official statement received today. The Estonians have taken the town of Narva on the Riga-Petrograd railway together with a large number of prisoners. Finnish troops are co-operating with the victorious Estonians. A quantity of booty fell into the hands of the victorious forces. The prisoners included one division with regimental staffs. Trotsky, it states, was present during the fighting and fled after the Bolshevik defeat.
